

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR CRICKET CLUB MEMBERS AND GUESTS

Tarleton Cricket Club is fully committed to safeguarding and promoting the wellbeing of all its members. The club believes that it is important that members, coaches, administrators and parents associated with the club should, at all times, show respect encouraged to be open at all times and to share any concerns or complaints that they may have about any aspect of the club with the Club Chairman, or any member of the Management Committee.

As a member of Tarleton Cricket Club, you are expected to abide by the following rules:

- All members must respect the rights, dignity and worth of all participants regardless of gender, ability, cultural background, age, sexuality, social/economic status or religion and treat everyone equally within the context of cricket
- All members must play within the rules and respect officials and their decisions
- All members should recognise fair play and applaud the good performances of all
- All members must use correct and proper language at all times
- All members should treat officials, other members and visitors with respect at all times
- Volunteers and members should develop an appropriate working relationship with participants/members based on mutual trust and respect
- Members and visitors are not allowed to smoke, vape or use banned substances on club premises
- Junior members are not allowed to consume alcohol on the club premises or whilst representing the club
- Adult members should remember that they serve as a role model for junior members
- Members must pay any fees promptly
- All members will follow all guidelines laid down by the ECB and the club
- Members and guests include all members and officers of the Cricket Club and all guests of those members and officers, as well as all individuals who watch/attend/participate/officiate in matches hosted by the Club in whatever capacity